ORIGINAL OF "SPOILERS" CHARACTER IS WOUNDED

PORTLAND, Ore., April 7.—Wilson T. Hume, an attorney widely known in the west and in Alaska, was shot in the back and seriously wounded at his office today. F. A. Consentino, a barber, was arrested. Consentino had quarreled with another lawyer in the same office and had been ejected. He could not see his victim's face when he fired, and the police say they believe he shot Hume by mistake.

Hume is said to have been the original of a leading figure in "The Spoilers," a novel dealing with the gold rush in Alaska.

OBJECTS TO NONRAILROAD MEN IN ORGANIZATIONS.

Menace, Says I. C. Mead; Country Will Suffer If System Succeds

CHICAGO, April 7.—A colloquy about the honesty of a man who, starting at the bottom, advances to the head of a great railroad, as compared with one who becomes the head of a great labor organization, enlightened today a session of the United States commission on industrial relations.

The argument was between Charles H. Markham, president of the Illinois Central railroad, who was on the witness stand practically all day, and Austin B. Garretson, president of the Order of Railroad Conductors, and a member of the commission.

The great strike of shopmen of 1911 on the Illinois Central and other so-called Harriman lines. Mr. Markham stated, really grew out of the attempt of the American Federation of Labor to organize the crafts of each railroad system, and it was opposed, regardless of cost.

"The proposed organization was a serious menace, as it carried to a logical conclusion, it would have left the railroad and industries along their lines helpless in the hands of a few men," said Mr. Markham.

"But the railroads are in the hands of a few men as it is," suggested Mr. Garretson.

Objects to Nonrailroad Men.

"But they are checked by their responsibilities to the stockholders, to the laws and to the public," replied the witness.

"Are you, Mr. Markham, any more honest now than when you were shoveling coal at Tucson?" asked the witness.

"Not a bit, but my responsibilities are greater."

"But when it comes to the honesty of the few men who control most things, is a man less honest because he chooses to rise through the labor arm of the railroad business to the presidency of a union, instead of a railroad company?"

"No essential difference hypothetically, but the history of the Knights of Labor, the American Railway union and similar organizations have been bad."

Mr. Markham said the employees of the road receive his most sympathetic consideration, and that he had no objections to unions such as the two brotherhoods of engineers, or the conductors, as they were all railroad men; but unions which include both railroad and nonrailroad craftsmen were a menace. The witness said that he advertised at regular rates to get the railroad view of the shopmen's strike before the public.

"At the time of the strike there were 51 railroads federated, how there are 51. Did you know that?" asked Mr. Garretson.

"No, but if this system of organization succeeds in fastening itself on the railroads you will all be sorry," said the witness. He read an exhaustive report giving the history of the strike.

Values Americans.

The sultan was informed that Emperor William was sending Field Marshal von der Goltz from crosses of the first and second classes, with which he intended to decorate his majesty and the sultan appeared highly pleased.

"I am proud of being presented with medals which decorate so many brave men," he said.

So far the sultan had occupied himself entirely with recent developments in the Dardanelles. Addressing himself to the American correspondents present, he now said: "I am pleased to see that two American journalists have an opportunity to witness the attempts to force the Dardanelles. I value the opinion of neutrals highly, and wish to avail myself of this opportunity to express the greatest satisfaction that the relations between the United States and Turkey are so cordial."

With this his majesty indicated by a slight movement of the hand that the audience was ended. Although in his seventy-first year, the monarch rose from the divan with alacrity and shook hands with the correspondents and, as at the beginning of the audience, expressed his pleasure at having made their acquaintance.

NAMES COURT-MARTIAL TO TRY SAN DIEGO OFFICERS

Charges Grow Out of Explosion of Six Boilers on Cruiser, Which Killed Nine Men

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Secretary Daniels today appointed a court-martial headed by Capt. John M. Elliott, as president, for the trial of certain officers of the cruiser San Diego on charges growing out of the explosion of six boilers on that vessel January 21 last, which caused the death of nine men.

A statement by the navy department says the accident, which occurred on the final trip, was caused by the dislodgment of a feed strainer, which prevented the proper quantity of water from reaching the boilers. The court of inquiry decided that Chief Machinist Thomas O'Donnell was culpably inefficient because the strainer was not of a proper design; that Lieut. K. L. Hill and Chief Water Tender W. L. Appleby failed to take proper precautions, and that Water Tenders W. R. Redmond and Albert Priddy were culpably negligent.

The court recommended the court-martial of all of the officers and men involved, but Secretary Daniels absolved Redmond and Priddy because they had reported the condition to their superior officers.

MAKE ISSUE OF LIQUOR QUESTION, BRYAN ADVISES

ness under the blight of an unholy alliance with an immoral cause.

"If, therefore, anybody asks you my opinion, you may say that in any contest between a wet and a dry candidate for national committee, I am for the dry candidate, and that I shall be greatly disappointed if the Democratic party in Iowa does not throw the weight of its great influence against the liquor interests and all that they stand for or desire."

Cannot ignore issue.

Secretary Bryan's statement follows: "The letter of Committee Chairman Kennington explains itself. It was being urged in behalf of one candidate that I favored his selection. When this was brought to my attention I felt that if my opinion was desired it ought to be given to all and that the reasons for that opinion should be stated so that the Democrats of Iowa would know what weight I gave to give to it."

"The prohibition question is an issue in Iowa and the fact is so clearly understood by the liquor forces that one of the leaders of the wet element of the Democratic party in Iowa objected to a very excellent man on the ground that he belonged to the drys."

"If the liquor interests insist upon making the question an issue in the selection of a national committee, those opposed to the liquor traffic cannot well ignore the issue. As a matter of fact, the liquor question now being before the people of Iowa, it could not be ignored in the selection of party officials no matter which side desired to ignore it."

May Not Be a National Issue.

"I do not know to what extent the liquor question will be an issue in the campaign next year. At the present time it does not seem probable that it will find a place in the platform of either the Democratic or the Republican party, but there is no reason why the national committee should not represent the sentiment of the party on this subject as on other subjects."

"Prohibition is not an issue in all the states, but where it is an issue, I hope to see the Democratic party take the prohibitive side. It cannot ally itself with the liquor interests without becoming a moral traitor and the moral standing of a party is the thing that gives it permanent strength."

A surrender to the liquor interests would mean a complete abandonment of the party's principle. It would mean a complete abandonment of the party's principle. It would mean a complete abandonment of the party's principle.

HUERTA COMING TO U.S. TO SEE HIS ASSOCIATES

Rumored They Are to Start Another Revolution in Mexico; May Join Some Faction

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Official announcement that Victoriano Huerta, late Mexican dictator, was on his way from Spain to the United States was received at the state department today from the American consul at Seville. Huerta recently sailed on the steamer Antonio Lopez, due to arrive Saturday. It will be his first visit to the United States, his absence of which last year, in the shifting months before he voluntarily went into exile, led to the American occupation of Vera Cruz.

Just what the purpose of Huerta's visit may be is unknown to officials, but it is generally believed he intends to confer with numerous prominent Mexicans associated with him in his administration, who have gathered in New York since the triumph of the Constitutional forces in Mexico, or perhaps intends to make his residence there.

The state department has heard several rumors that some of Huerta's followers were gathering strength to promote another military campaign in Mexico in the hope of preventing either the Carranza forces or the Villa-Zapata coalition from obtaining possession of Mexico's government, but nothing tangible has developed so far as officials here are informed, indicating any move in that direction.

Belief has prevailed in official quarters here that many of the Mexicans now in exile would sooner or later join with whatever faction was apparently getting the upper hand in the present struggle.

HOW TO PICK OUT A GOOD EGG-LAYING HEN

In the current issue of Farm and Poultry, the national farm paper published at Springfield, Ohio, appears a very interesting discussion of the egg-laying qualities of hens. Some poultrymen insist that the only way to develop a strong egg-laying strain is by the use of the trap-nest. Others claim that the best method of selection is by the appearance of hens. One of the contributors to this practical and suggestive discussion tells as follows how to pick out a good egg-laying hen:

"Practically all 200-egg hens are very long-bodied birds and this point should be remembered."

"Select the bird which has length and depth of body, large red combs, bright eyes and erect carriage, which is first to the feeding trough and last to the roost."

"To indicate the worth of the above method the writer on this plan once selected 75 breeders from 130 birds. The first 25 birds were selected chiefly for color. The other 50 were selected chiefly for the desire to work and move about, general health and strength, moderate size and length of body."

"The 75 selected hens were separated from the others, and the first day out-laid the culs by 68 per cent. They kept the speed up day after day until the writer became satisfied that the selected birds were really better layers, and that this method was O. K."

HOW WAR EFFECTS LANGUAGE

All Rules of Grammar Are Powerless to Stop Martial Metaphors

From the London Globe.

Language, like almost everything else, is unable to escape from being conditioned and modified by war. Half our best metaphors are taken from war as it is used to be, and we still talk of nations "taking the sword," though that is just what they never do, when "moving the boundary" would be vastly more appropriate. Modern artillery has forced us to make a verb out of a noun and to permit our gunners to "shell" a place in defiance of all conceivable rules of grammar. We have forced "offensive" and "defensive" to do duty as nouns in spite of the fact that they are adjectives and must be preceded by an adjective. The result is a jargon which is as much a part of the war as the bullet itself.

Perhaps the most curious thing in this connection is the way in which we have been driven back upon the old word "shell" to denote the act of the Zeppelin and the airplane as should certainly have been the case. The word "shell" before the British now is a verb, "to shell" means to bombard, and it is the only word which has been used to denote the act of the Zeppelin and the airplane as should certainly have been the case. JOFFRE HAS THE CANDY HABIT

From the London Chronicle. We are told by a French contemporary that General Joffre is not much of a smoker, but invariably carries a supply of sweets to munch. Evidently he shares the belief held by many high authorities that sugar helps to ward off fatigue.

Consumed in fairly large quantities it acts rapidly, almost like a drug, its full effect being felt about two hours after taking it. Scientific experiments carried out with the aid of the ergograph—an instrument for registering accurately variations of muscular power—show that sugar gives an increase of physical power ranging from 50 to 75 per cent.

Vote on Platoon Plan Legal, Says Clerk

Post-Election Queries Created Some Doubt

Did any qualified voter, not a taxpayer have a right to vote on the firemen's double platoon system? — which when in operation, means that the city must raise at least $10,000 more annually by taxation—is one of the numerous post-election questions being asked City Clerk Charles Chapman. But it, unlike the most of the queries created some little doubt for a time.

Under the charter, it seems, voting is restricted to tax payers only on special elections to authorize indebtedness and issuance of bonds. Section 182 of Article 4 of the code says: "No person shall be allowed to vote at any such special election without having been registered as herein provided and without having paid a property tax in said city in the year next preceding such election."

Morally, the elector has no right to vote to expend some $10,000 or $11,000 of some one else's money, but legally it is proper.

Each of the 12 candidates who ran for the offices of commissioners of public health and sanitation and public works and property at the municipal election Tuesday must, within 30 days, file an itemized statement with the city clerk. Section 108 of Article XIII of the city charter, covering this, says:

Every candidate who is voted for at an election held within this city shall within 30 days after such election, file an itemized statement showing in detail all the moneys contributed or expended by him directly or indirectly by himself or through any other person in aid of his election. Such statement shall give the names of the various persons who received such money and the specific nature of each item and the purpose for which it was expended or contributed. There shall be attached to each statement an affidavit of such candidate setting forth in substance that the statement thus made is in all respects true and that the same is a full and detailed statement of all moneys so contributed or expended by him.

Section 109 of the same article providing the penalty says:

"Any person who shall fail to file a sworn statement of expenses as hereinabove required, shall, upon conviction thereof, be forthwith disqualified from holding municipal office, position or employment for a period of two years; and if such person shall have been elected or appointed to any municipal office, position or employment, his conviction of any such violation shall ipso facto create a vacancy therein."

Action for the enforcement of this provision may be brought by the city attorney, or by any citizen, on behalf of the city."

Under the charter regulation "that the council shall meet as a canvassing board and duly canvass the election returns within two days after any municipal election" the city commissioners will meet this morning to go over the poll books.

City Clerk Charles Chapman yesterday gave out the following semi-official figures on the amendment and two ordinances voted on at the Tuesday election:

Single tax—for, 344, against, 1,241.
Lost by 897, total vote, 1,585.
Sunday amusements—for, 3,842, against, 4,909, lost by 1,067, total vote, 8,751.
Double platoon for fire department—for, 4,428, against, 3,567, carried by 861 total vote, 7,995.

The figures show that contrary to the usual, most of the voters expressed a choice on all the initiated measures. No one seemed to be given preference, or excite much more interest than the others.

800,000 Tourists This Year, Predicts Martin

Rock Island Official Looks for Big Season

About 800,000 tourists will pass through Colorado this summer on trains and the majority of them will visit the Pikes Peak region and other places of scenic interest, according to George W. Martin, general agent for the Rock Island railroad-lines, who was in this city yesterday from Chicago and is stopping at the Antlers hotel.

Mr. Martin predicts that this will be the most successful tourist season in the history of the state. He looks for the heaviest tourist movements in June, July and August.

"I consider 800,000 a conservative figure," he said yesterday, "and with more than 100,000 people coming to the state in automobiles, this should be a record year for Colorado Springs."

For the last few months many tourists have been taking the southern route to California to avoid the rains. But from now on thinks Martin, 95 per cent of the people will pass through the Pikes Peak region.

More than $75,000 is being spent this year by the Rock Island railroad to advertise Colorado according to Mr. Martin. Thousands of articles have been placed in magazines papers and pamphlets, with a view to exploiting the scenic places in this state.

"We are spending money to get results," he said, "and I think those results are in evidence already. I am told by the hotel men that March of this year has been the best in the history of the town. That shows the tourists are coming in."

The officials of the Rock Island railroad are interested in helping Colorado Springs to secure "the privilege of Pullman ticket stop-overs. This privilege has been granted to Denver, but both Colorado Springs and Pueblo, which are common points with Denver, have been omitted. The matter recently was taken up by C. B. Seldomridge, chairman of the transportation committee of the Chamber of Commerce, but no definite action has been taken by the company.

"We will do all we can to help Colorado Springs get this privilege," said Martin. "No discrimination should be made between this city and Denver by the Pullman company, and I am inclined to think the privilege will be granted. The railroad has nothing to say in the matter officially, but our company will lend its influence to the plan."

All the passengers who are routed over the Rock Island lines will stop in Colorado Springs when the spring storms and rains are over, according to Mr. Martin.

DR. CHARLES L. MEAD TO BE PRINCIPAL SPEAKER

The Rev. Charles L. Mead, D.D., pastor of the M. E. church of Denver, will be the principal speaker at the annual convention of the El Paso County Sunday School association beginning next Monday afternoon. Dr. Mead will address the convention Tuesday evening on "The Divinity of Christ."

Preparations for the meeting are complete and the convention promises to be the best ever held here. There will be two sessions daily, at 2 in the afternoon and at 7:30 in the evening. The music will be in charge of the Rev. Edwin Tustin, pastor of the Boulder Street Presbyterian church.

There will be no prayer meetings Wednesday night on account of the convention but the members of the congregations will unite in a special service that evening. The banquet will be served Thursday evening at the First Presbyterian church by the ladies of the church. The sessions of the convention will be held at the First Presbyterian church. The public is invited.

'Health Booklet' Will Be Ready Next Week; 10,000 in First Issue

Ten thousand copies of the new booklet which has been compiled and edited by the climatic conditions committee of the Chamber of Commerce, will be ready for distribution within the next week or 10 days.

The chief purpose of the book is to advertise Colorado Springs as a place suited for homes. Special attention has been paid to the climatic conditions and authoritative articles have been prepared by members of the El Paso County Medical association and of the Bolly Tuberculosis association. There will be 80 pages of reading matter, accompanied by 100 illustrations which have been carefully selected with a view of bringing out the advantages of the region and its scenic beauty.

Many Phases Covered.

The cover of the booklet will be in heavy paper, showing a picture of Pikes Peak at a distance and having in large letters, "Health, Education, Recreation and Residence—All the Year Round."

Particular emphasis has been placed on the advantages which the Pikes Peak region possesses as a playground for children and a nursery for babies. An historical synopsis of the region is given, and the educational advantages of Colorado Springs are brought out also. Practically nothing has been omitted and it is the aim of the committee to have gathered together the material with a view to attracting home-seekers to Colorado Springs.

The work of editing the book is in the hands of Chairman A. C. Magrader and the climatic conditions committee. The illustrations will be in sepia tint.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the substitute for calomel—a mild but sure laxative and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly cure it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids.

It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most has suffered "biliousness" and that nasty feeling called "indigestion," and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." Note how they clear clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

EAST SIDE FIRE STATION MAY BE ABANDONED SOON

Action Would Give Department Four Men and Help Work Out Question of Finances

The abandonment of the east side fire station will be brought before the city council in the near future as one method of helping to provide funds for the two platoon system for the department. There are four men at the east side station and the motor apparatus would enable the department to cover the territory just as well from the central station. This matter will be referred to the fire underwriters before any action is taken.

How to meet the additional expense occasioned by the two platoon system is the question that will keep the council busy for several weeks. The new ordinance becomes effective June 1 and the council will have to stretch the appropriation of $37,880 to $44,000. Commissioner of Finance E. L. Hank estimates that the two platoon system will increase the expense of the department $1,000 a month. This can be met only with emergency warrants. If the increase in the salary roll amounts to $10,000 the city next year will have to meet a $50,000 deficiency due to a $20,000 loss from liquor license revenue and $10,000 additional for the fire department.

There are 26 firemen at present in the department. An increase of 10 men will be needed for the double platoon system and as the firemen are paid an average of $90 a month there will be an increase of $900 at least. Under the system there will be a 16-hour day shift and a 14-hour night shift.

At the present time there are but two men on the eligible list for the department and a civil service examination will be held Thursday, April 29, at 1:30 p. m. for firemen. Applications must be filed before April 23 with Secretary R. P. Van Hook.

The subjects of the examinations and weights thereof will be as follows:

Spelling 1
Arithmetic 1
Civics 1
City information 1
Knowledge of duties 6
Total 11

All applicants will be required to take a physical examination, the weight of which will be as follows: Physical development and strength, 1; mental tests, 1; Total, 2.

Application blanks may be obtained free of charge at the office of the commission.

New Bathhouse and Pool at Hartsel to Cost About $50,000

Fifty thousand dollars will be spent this summer in the construction of a new bathhouse and swimming pool at Hartsel, 70 miles west of Colorado Springs on the Midland railroad. An effort is to be made to popularize Hartsel's mineral waters so that they will be known all over the country. Hartsel is a three-hour ride from Colorado Springs.

The bath at Hartsel and the hot springs are owned by William Mason of Evanston, Ill., nephew and sole heir of the late "Silent" Smith of New York. A long term lease has been taken on the hotel by Dr. Harlan E. Mize of Chicago, who formerly was connected with the management of the French Lick springs in Indiana. Many improvements are to be made in the hotel.

Distinctive Millinery That Is Entirely Different

Different in every way from the earlier Hats. The shapes themselves are dressier in medium and larger models, largely on the sailor idea. The straws, too, seem new, with combinations of such colors as navy blue, rose, belgian blue, sand or black, with the natural leghorn. Bright trimmings of ribbons, flowers, etc., go to finish them off as typical models of late spring and summer. Heirs Quickly Vanish After this Treatment

Chloroform is the best for the banishing of hair, from the face, face and according to a hair specialist the most effective treatment yet devised consists of applying a delicate paste to the hairy surface for 2 or 3 minutes. The paste is made by mixing some water with a fine powdered substance. When this paste is removed the skin washed with soap and hair has vanished. Be sure to get real deodorant. Adv.

Carter's White Lead

Painter's Paint

To People Who Are Building

Start right. Let your painting contract separate from your general contract; then there will be no temptation to make up on the painting for unexpected loss on other work.

Good painting begins with the first or priming coat. Unless that sticks to the wood, all the paint will come off together. Putting good paint over bad is money wasted.

Coarse pigments or any that form a hard, brittle film should be avoided. These are likely to blister, or crack, or peel, or flake off. Only the smoothest and most elastic paint will stand the test of time and weather.

Start with a priming coat of Carter's White Lead. It will not only give a good base for the paint, but it will also keep the wood from rotting.

Don't figure that you will save anything by ordering cheap paint. It will cost you more in the long run.

ADDITIONAL CARS ENTER SOCIABILITY RUN TO EXPLOIT REGION'S MANY ATTRACTIONS

Final Plans of Trip Eastward Discussed at Antlers; Success of Tour Assured

Plans for the Pikes Peak Ocean-to-Ocean highway automobile sociability run were discussed with enthusiasm yesterday at a luncheon at the Antlers hotel, which was attended by about 40 prominent business men and merchants. Addresses were given by Mayor C. L. McKisson and R. L. Holland, and as the result of the meeting additional automobiles were entered for the trip.

It is expected that more than 10 cars will start next Wednesday morning on the sociability run to Chicago and other eastern cities. The president of the Pikes Peak highway association, C. F. Adams of Chilloche, Mo., will meet the party at St. Joseph to escort it as far as Hannibal, according to a letter received yesterday by Secretary A. W. Henderson of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Adams writes that the roads in Missouri are in good condition, and says that a warm welcome awaits the motorists.

The plans of the committee on decoration, which is composed of Tod Powell, chairman, Ralph O. Giddings and Charles H. Austin, are practically complete. There will be big banners on each side of the automobiles, which will bear the legend, "Sociability Run, Pikes Peak Ocean-to-Ocean Highway." In the center of this banner will be a picture of Pikes Peak, the color scheme being red and white. On each side of the hood of the cars will be another banner, having the words, "See America Now. The Pikes Peak Region, the Playground of America." Another banner has been prepared for the back of the automobiles. It will bear a picture of the mountain and the name of the town from which the automobile is entered, either Colorado Springs, Cripple Creek or Manitou. State flags will fly from the lamp brackets. The motorists will be given uniforms of khaki and will wear the official badge of the association.

The itinerary for the first four days has been definitely announced and will cover about 65 miles. The day and night controls are given as follows: Wednesday, April 14, Limon, Burlington or Goodland; Thursday, Colby and Newton; Friday, Smith Center, Beloit, Saturday, Seneca and St. Joseph, Mo.

The official starting time will be Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock from the Burns building.

A great deal of interest is being taken in the trip and hundreds of letters have been received from business men.

THREE MURDERERS FAIL IN CAL. PRISON BREAK

Used Hangman's Rope, but Were Caught Before They Got Out of Building

SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 7.—Three convicted murderers, two of them under death sentence, are back in Folsom prison tonight after an ineffectual attempt to escape by sliding down the hangman's rope.

The trio, Frank Creek, Earl Loomis and Zolte (Lemon), escaped from their cells by a key smuggled to a creek who got away once before by murdering a sergeant of the guard. They worked their way to the entrance of the death chamber, which awaits Creek and Loomis and took from a box the rope used two years ago to hang Jacob Oppenheimer, a convict known as the "human tiger."

With this they slid to a window at the bars of which they were saving away when discovered.

They submitted without resistance and their adventure did not become known outside until nearly 24 hours after its occurrence. The source of the saw and key has not been disclosed.

LAWS OF MOSES COPIES OF MORE ANCIENT LAWS

So Valuable, Though, That They Form Base of Bills Today, Says Archaeologist

PHILADELPHIA, April 7.—Interesting features of the ancient Mosaic laws were detailed by Prof. Camden M. Cohen of Allegheny college in a lecture here today on "Moses and His Times." Recent discoveries by archaeologists, he declared, have confirmed the Biblical account of Moses.

"Many of the laws of Moses are copies of more ancient laws," said Dr. Cohen, "and the nucleus of his laws was so valuable that it has been built the laws of the civilized world today. One of the old Mosaic laws fixed the salary of a surgeon. If he succeeded in an operation he received a certain sum. If he failed, his right arm was cut off."

Under the same law the speaker said a contractor was put to death in case a building he had constructed fell and killed some one, or if a burglar was committed in a town a major and council were held responsible for it.

Moses could have written his laws in any one of six languages," Dr. Cohen added. The doctors of the day were as wise as ours, they wrote their prescriptions in an ancient tongue that nobody else could understand. I've seen prescriptions for making the hair grow. The were printed on papyrus, and the fact that it was a good one was proved by a note written beside it in another hand. "It does the work, too."

I—IN CHAMPAGNE.

Frank H. Simonds in the New York Tribune.

For nearly two months the official statements of German and French war offices alike have referred almost daily to engagement in western Champagne. The Meuse, Beauséjour and Ville-sur-Tourbe have again and again been the scenes of desperate combats. Flatly there has been going on in this field a major operation. Now the Germans announce that it has terminated in French defeat—that the battle of Champagne has been a German victory. It is, then, an appropriate time to analyze what has probably been the most important engagement in the west in 1915.

At the outset it is necessary to review hurriedly the situation between the Oise and the Meuse as it has developed since the great German invasion was halted at the Marne in September. At that time three great masses of Germans were operating between the two rivers. The first, under Von Kluck, approached Paris and then went east and south. The second, under Von Bulow, came south through Rheims, passed the Marne near Chalons and was defeated about St. Gond and Camp de Mailly. The third, under the crown prince, passed between the Argonne and Verdun and was halted about Vitry-le-François.

As these armies retreated the first took up the position behind the Aisne, north of Soissons and south of Laon; the second fell back until it occupied the northern forts about Rheims; while the third withdrew as far as Varennes in the Argonne. When the retreat halted these three armies established contact and occupied a front, from the Oise, east of Noyon, to the Meuse, north of Verdun.

Von Kluck repressed the Aisne on September 11, and on the next day the British, following, took ground about Soissons, but were unable to advance. Three weeks of desperate fighting in this field resulted in a deadlock. On October 3, the British army gave up its trenches to French reserves and entrained for Belgium, where it presently halted the German advance about Ypres.

The French troops who replaced the British pushed their advance against the Germans, made considerable progress west of Craonne, on the Laon road, but were finally heavily defeated in January, driven across the Aisne, and the whole offensive west of Rheims came to an abrupt close.

In the same fashion, the early efforts of the French who pursued Von Bulow's army from the Marne were checked in the eastern suburbs of Rheims. This city had been a fortified place, surrounded by a circle of forts. In the great retreat the French had dismantled the forts and evacuated them. The Germans in their turn occupied the eastern suburbs of Rheims.

Kaiser Admits Loss of Submarine U-29

BERLIN, April 7.—The German admiralty has given out an official statement in which the loss of the submarine U-29 is accepted. The text of the communication follows: "Submarine U-29 has not returned from its last cruise. According to a report of the British admiralty of March 26, this vessel with her crew was sent to the bottom. She therefore must be regarded as lost."

The U-29 displaced 800 tons and could make 18 knots on the surface and ten knots submerged. The middle of March she made a raid in the channel and sank one French and four British steamships and damaged three other vessels.

Britain Suffers From Submarine Activities

BERLIN, April 7.—By wireless to Sayville.—Certain local newspapers today declare reports received in Berlin show that the submarine warfare of Germany is causing great increases in the price in England of objects necessary to the maintenance of life. Judging from the news available in Berlin, the great conflict in the Carpathians appears to be growing more intense and covering a greater area every day.

AMERICA SURRENDERS TO BRITAIN IN GERMAN VIEW

BERLIN, via London, April 7.—The Berlin newspapers today publish summaries of the American note to Great Britain on the order in council. With the exception of the Kreuze Zeitung they make no comment. This paper, however, says: "If this summary is correct the note means the far-reaching retreat of America, inasmuch as it permits Great Britain to carry out its blockade measures against American ships even when they carry goods which are not contraband, but come from or go to parts of hostile lands. In this America surrenders the principle that every blockade must be effective."

More and more the situation in the west comes to resemble that in Virginia in the Civil war. Between the Blue Ridge and Chesapeake bay, Confederate lines held until the summer of 1861, and from Richmond to the mountains until 1865. "On to Richmond" was as familiar a cry then as "on to Berlin" is now. Such satisfaction as the allies can find in the western campaign is discoverable in the fact that there is no longer any prospect of an "On to Paris" drive. In France the Germans are on the defensive, but the defensive they are as yet formidable.

NO TIME TO TALK PEACE NOW, SAYS MRS. PANKHURST

Proposed Women's Conference Will Be Ineffective: Eight Americans Will Attend

LONDON, April 7.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst announced today that the Women's Social and Political Union and the other suffrage organizations in Great Britain and France had decided not to participate in the forthcoming women's conference at The Hague to consider the question of peace. The British militant leader said: "This movement is well meaning but mistaken. Those running this conference have no political influence. Progress is being made in this direction here and in neutral countries and much German money has been circulated in America but this is not the time to talk peace."

Americans Off to Conference.

NEW YORK, April 7.—Mrs. Rosika Schwimmer, press secretary of the International Woman Suffrage alliance, today took back to Europe with her today eight men and women to organize and attend the peace conference to be held at The Hague, April 28, 29 and 30. The party were passengers on the Scandinavian American line steamship Frederick VIII.

Included in the party were Mr. and Mrs. William Pruss Lloyd, Mrs. Julia Loeb, Miss Florence Holbrook and Mrs. Eliza Rhine of Chicago; Miss Laura Hughes of Toronto and Demarest Lloyd of Boston.

Madame Schwimmer has been in this country since September, urging Americans to join in a peace conference to protest against the continuance of the war. She has delivered addresses in 28 states. The purpose of her visit was to induce the United States to intercede in the war. On the eve of her departure, Madame Schwimmer said: "We have received word that so many women want to attend the conference that there is no room in the peace palace large enough for them. I will take in many towns in Norway and Sweden before going to The Hague. We understand the women of Russia will not be allowed to come because they cannot get passports."

TAKING CARE OF THE CHILDREN.

No parent would consciously be cruel to the children. Joe A. Robinson, of Chicago, who has been in the hospital for a long time, says: "We are never without Foley's Honey and Tar in the house. It is a distressing cough, sleepless nights, and raw, inflamed throat lead to a run-down condition in which the child is not able to resist contagious or infectious diseases. Foley's Honey and Tar is truly healing and promptly in action. It relieves coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Robinson Drug Co. Adv."

BRIGADIER GENERAL SCOTT REPORTS ON INDIAN UPRISING

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Brigadier General Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff of the army, today submitted to Secretary Garrison a report on his recent expedition to Utah, where he succeeded in quelling an uprising among the Plute Indians, who had gone on the warpath when the federal authorities sought to arrest The Ne Gai for alleged murder. General Scott recounted the details of his mission and told how he effected the surrender with little difficulty of the four Plutes who had resisted arrest.

MAIL OF DAY IN CHICAGO TOTALS 4,000,000 PIECES

CHICAGO, April 7.—More than 4,000,000 pieces of mail passed through the Chicago postoffice yesterday, the largest amount handled in a day since the office was established. Seven hundred extra men were required to sort the mail.

Postmaster Daniel A. Campbell attributed the increase to a combination of political circulars, Easter greetings and an unusually large list of monthly statements.

THE DEAD BURY THEMSELVES

John Reed in the Metropolitan.
And now, suddenly, we were in the front trench. Looking against its front wall men stood shoulder to shoulder, shielded by thin plates of steel, each pierced with a loophole through which the rifle lay. Sudden with the drizzling rain, their bodies crashing into the oozy mud, they stood thigh-deep in thick brown water and shot eight hours of the 24—nor slept the rest of the time.

For three days they kept this up—and these men had been there three days, for they were to be relieved at four o'clock. The shooters paid no attention to us. Through their loopholes they stared absorbed, alert, into the blackness, waiting until the next rocket should show the least movement above the edge of the French trenches. By its light they got the range and took a sight on a few meters of heaped-up earth and when it went out they kept on firing in the dark. The lieutenant ordered one of the soldiers to stand aside and invited us to look through the loophole.

"We are going to send up two or three rockets for you so you can see the French trenches. They are only 20 meters away, and if you will look about 20 yards from here you will see the bodies of the French who fell in their last attack. They came on in columns, four abreast as the Prussians did at Liege, and our machine guns got every one."

The pocket plot I reached. A twinkling point of light spiraled up because a blinding flash and fell slowly. Before it was out another followed and then another. For a minute it was as bright as day. Up a gentle hill struggled the French trench, a black mass pricked with rifle flame. Between its flat nose glistering like the skin of a sea bed uncovered by an earthquake only a little way off by the huddled, blue-coated bodies of the

TIGERS VS. MINES SATURDAY, 3 P. M. WASHBURN FIELD

Mines Show Strength, Taking
Two from Aggies; Rain
Handicaps C. C.

Tigers vs. Mines, Saturday, 3 p. m.,
Washburn field.

The conference baseball season will be opened locally Saturday at Washburn field, when the Colorado college and school of mines teams meet. What the game holds forth in the way of baseball or a Tiger victory is as uncertain as betting on prize fights. The Tigers haven't started to develop, and what they can do is unknown. This week rain kept the squad from working until yesterday, when Coach Rothgeb gave them a hard afternoon's sport. There was a session in the batting cage and detailed explanations by the coach on how to hit. Then followed brisk fielding work, winding up with a long run for condition's sake.

The Mines opened their season last Saturday by defeating the Aggies in a double header, 9 to 7 and 7 to 4. The Aggies, however, have only three victories in position and have had little or no opportunity for practice. The Mines have been working outdoors for the last three weeks. They have seven veterans on the team and plenty of good pitching material.

Coach Rothgeb has not finally selected his team, and will not until after Saturday's game. His pitching selection is still uncertain, Mack Davis, Captain Evans or Wubben, a southpaw, being available. Who will start depends entirely on the form displayed this week. All have had a little experience, but none ever has faced college clubbers. Davis has lots of steam, Evans has a good head, and Wubben has a nice kit of curves as a control.

Fight Pictures Cannot Be Shown in the U. S.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Persons who had hoped to see the Willard-Johnson fight in motion pictures will be disappointed. It provided a fine of $1,000 and imprisonment for one year or both for each offense.

WHITNEY'S $30,000 MARE DIES AT BROOKVILLE FARM

NEW YORK, April 7.—The death of Bashit, one of the most prized brood mares at Harry Payne Whitney's Brookdale farm, became known today. Bashit was the daughter of Adam A. Whitney paid $30,000 for the mare at the dispersal sale of the New Castle stable at Saratoga Springs in 1910. In the loss of winning the Kentucky Derby in 1913, she was the only mare to win the Kentucky Derby in that race but later won the Belmont Stakes. She was ranked as one of the best brood mares of the year.

BRESNAHAN DESIGNS CUBS' UNIFORMS FOR SEASON

The home uniforms are solid blue with white trim, and the away uniforms are white with blue trim. The traveling uniforms are solid gray with black trim. The Cubs are expected to wear these uniforms when they begin their season in May.

THOUSANDS GREET WILLARD ON HIS ARRIVAL AT KEY WEST; CHAMPION WILL NEVER FIGHT A NEGRO AGAIN

Will 'Get Coin Due Him' Before He Starts to Defend the Title; Johnson Sees Him Off at Havana, and Black Pitifully Says, 'It's Certainly Hard to Be an Exile'

KEY WEST, Fla., April 7.—Jess Willard, the new heavyweight champion pugilist of the world, arrived here late today from Havana, where on Monday he won the title from Jack Johnson. A crowd of several thousand who gathered on the pier to greet the new champion became so demonstrative that they broke down fences and parted ropes in their eagerness to get near the Kansas giant. The police had great difficulty in preserving order.

When the steamship Governor Cobb, bringing Willard and his party, steamed into the harbor, after a rough trip from the Cuban capital, all the shipping flags of welcome, and the crews lined the rails and yelled cheering words at the white champion. Several government torpedo boat destroyers opened their sirens in welcome. Willard stood on the upper deck and repeatedly lifted his broad-brimmed black sombrero in answer.

As the ship warped into her dock the crowd of excited men, women and children on the pier craned necks for a glimpse of Willard. A few moments later as Willard was seen coming down the gangplank the crowd broke fences and ropes and rushed in the direction of the champion. Soon Willard was surrounded by a throng of cheering, jumping, festivating persons, and he was being carried to another end of the pier where a committee from the board of trade bunched him into a carriage for the parade up to the town. A band headed the procession to Willard's hotel, and he was given an enthusiastic greeting all the way.

Later when Willard was shown a telegram offering $20,000 as a purse for a fight with Frank Moran, he said: "Pshaw! I don't know anything about my future plans. See Tom Jones," indicating his manager. Jones, after reading the telegram, said emphatically that Willard would not fight for nine months or a year.

"Willard," said Jones, "has been training for a year and a half and has earned a rest. He is going to tour the country, picking up the money that is due him. You know Willard has not made any big money out of this fight."

JOHNSON GETS HIS PASSPORTS; NOBODY KNOWS DESTINATION

Denies Ever Being Convicted in U. S.; May Lecture in Europe

HAVANA, April 7.—Jack Johnson, who lost the heavyweight pugilistic championship to Jess Willard last Monday, today applied at the American legation for a passport for himself and his wife, swearing to an affidavit that he had never been convicted of a felony in the United States, that no charge was pending against him, and that he was not subject to arrest if he returned to America. Johnson also swore that he possessed American passports when he came to Cuba, but that these had been stolen from him while here. In his affidavit Johnson said he was an American citizen, and that he had been in the United States for the past three months.

On these statements passports were made out for Johnson and his wife. The former champion said he purposed to go from Cuba to Jamaica and thence to England and France, where he hoped to make more money before returning to the life of a farmer in France. Johnson said he expected to ally himself with moving picture concerns in Europe, and that he probably would lecture before and during the exhibition of the pictures of the fight in which Willard defeated him.

The big black, however, has told so many stories concerning his future plans that nobody in Havana knows just what he will do. The belief seems to be growing that he has no definite plan for the future. There has been much doubt in Havana as to Johnson's legal standing in the United States, reports having been circulated that his friends were attempting to arrange for his case in Chicago under the Mann act to be dropped.

NEW YORK MARKET

NEW YORK, April 7.—In its essential features today's stock market was largely a repetition of the day's preceding action, made further program though gains were mainly in the specialties which have attracted operations of the past fortnight. Trading was subject to frequent periods of dullness and total transactions were somewhat under recent averages.

Automobile shares broke into new high ground, with gains which ran as high as seven points. Petroleum stocks, fertilizers, the smaller steel companies and numerous other miscellaneous issues joined in this movement, which gave more traces of professional manipulation.

These advances were partly nullified by corresponding declines in various specialties. Rock Island and Missouri Pacific were active at advances, but leaders like Union Pacific, United States Steel, Reading and Amalgamated rose and fell alternately.

Contrary to expectations, the publication of the government crop report, which showed improvement in the average condition of winter wheat over last December, failed to exercise the slightest influence. Likewise sales of refined copper at a fraction over 16 failed of favorable effect in the metal group.

Rates of exchange on London were lower on heavy offerings of bank bills by a leading institution. Continental francs and marks easing perceptibly. Remittances on Rome were unchanged, despite the belief that a loan or credit to Italy is impending. London was again a seller of our stocks in the home market.

Local and interior banks are once more in the money market, long time loans and purchases of commercial papers constituting a large part of their recent operations.

Total sales of stocks amounted to $24,900 shares. Bonds were irregular. Total sales of bonds aggregated $2,734,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

CHICAGO MARKET

CHICAGO, April 7.—Rains that allayed fear of drought stopped the wheat market today on a decline, which was emphasized later by the government crop report and by rumors that Austria had sued for peace. The close was heavy with a loss of 1 1/2 to 2 1/2. Corn finished 1/2 down, oats 1/2 to 1/4 and provisions varying from a setback of 1/2 to a rise of 3/4.

The government crop report turned out to be about as bearish as expected. Late cable advice of Russian progress tended to confirm gossip that Austria was negotiating to end the war.

Absence of any important new export demand for wheat attracted considerable notice in view of the acknowledged shortage across the Atlantic.

Corn traded off with wheat and as a result of improved weather conditions. Most of the trade was between pit speculators. Corn was relatively firm owing to seaboard buying of the May delivery.

In addition there were cash sales here of 300,000 bushels, chiefly for export. Demand for provisions was only fair. Quotations furnished by Otis & Co. Open High Low Close.

Seeing Chamberlain's Cough Remedy so highly recommended, I got her a bottle and it relieved the cough at once.
